Michel Desjardins - has proven his talent for over 20 years on the most renowned concert stages in Québec and internationally. We have seen him perform at the Olympia in Paris, at the Montreal Forum, at the Capitol in Québec and with the Symphonic Orchestra of Sibiu in Romania. Michel has played his music in over 20 countries around the world.

We have seen him play the piano and keyboards on many tours with well-known artists such as Bruno Pelletier, Dan Bigras, Marie Carmen and Elvis Story. Moreover, Michel Desjardins has been the musical director as well as played piano and keyboards to accompany more well-known artists for television shows: Garou, Isabelle Boulay, Robert Marien, Mario Pelchat, Richard Séguin, Michel Rivard, Claude Dubois, Laurence Jalbert, Nanette Workman, Marjo, Éric Lapointe, Luce Dufault, Daniel Boucher, Michelle Richard and many more.

He has also collaborated with Luc Plamaondon for the production of Notre Dame de Paris, Starmania, Star Academie as well as many others. Michel also composes, produces and performs for modern and contemporary dance shows for the Eloize Circus as well as on many albums.

Since 2002, he has been performing in a duo (vocals and piano) called TWICE with Mélanie Gagnon interpreting Jazz, Popular, Dance, Blues, Rock'n'Roll, Rythum'n'Blues, Latino and Classical music.

Mélane - is a self-taught artist, author composer and performer. She started performing at a very young age in clubs in her hometown of Abitibi. AT the age of 6, she recorded her first single and performed every weekend. Always having passion for music, she continued to perform wherever possible after moving to the Laurentiennes. She has participated in many contests, musical reviews, telethons and shows of all kinds. Mélane found herself in the top 10 finalists in Québec for Cegep en Spectacles in 1995. She was also a semi-finalist at the Granby Festival in 1997. In the meantime, she was performing in a Rock'n'Roll band as a main vocalist and back vocals throughout Quebec.

In 2000-2001, Mélane invested and produced her first album. She collaborated with guitarist François Wellet to compose and realise her project. From November 2001 to March 2002, Melane performed in over 95 shows in New Hampshire and Atlantic City. She returned to the United States shortly after (September 2002 and 2003) to perform in a musical review for 6 weeks.

Renowned for her undeniable charisma, her warm, versatile, yet unique, voice, Mélane seduces her public with her original interpretations. She excels in all musical styles: Jazz, Blues, Pop, latino, Country, etc. She has been performing in a duo with pianist Michel Desjardins for the last two years in over 100 shows. The quality of their repertoire, their energy, and their musical and vocal performances as well the originality of their interpretations sets them apart from many other groups. You must see and hear them. They are a winning combination!
